

Darrin Leigh

Bio

Darrin's repertoire is extensive covering well known material from the 50's to the 90's and beyond.

Darrin has worked as a solo artist and in duos, trios, cover bands, originals bands and shows in Australia and New Zealand.

Darrin has an extensive background in performance in many genres and has performed and recorded with originals bands and projects in New Zealand and Australia from the 1980's forward.

Darrin's most recent role show role was as saxophonist with Beyond the Darkside - Australia's largest and longest established Pink Floyd tribute show.

This exclusive Art Rock show played every major performance venue in Australia including the Sydney Opera House, Crown Casino, Exhibition and Convention centres and Performing Arts centres.

Darrin's strong and rich vocal tone is complimented by lots of saxophone across well chosen tunes - classic hits, easy listening, mixed dance and more.
